The Passing of the Peace

Prelude

Call to Worship [responsive]

Leader: Gather in awe before God, who laid the foundations of the earth.

Open your hearts to the steadfast love God offers.

People: The deeds of God are beyond our knowing.

Yet we catch glimpses of God's mercy and care.

Leader: God does not forsake us when we are dismayed and afraid.

Our Creator is with us in all times and places.

People: God is a stronghold for the oppressed and troubled.

The needy and the poor are not forgotten.

Leader: God is ready to listen to us in these moments together.

See, now is the acceptable time, the day of salvation.

People: Surely God will meet us here in our faith community!

How good it is when we sense our unity in Christ!

*Hymn No. 272 "God of the Sparrow"

Prayer of Confession [in unison]

Help us, God, for we do not have the wisdom to help ourselves. When the good we have known crumbles beneath our feet and we are mired down in hopelessness and self-pity, we need you. When we cannot hide from the evil that is all around us because some of it is also in us, we cry out for your saving mercy. We confess that it is easier to see the problems than the promise. We have been more ready to complain than to accept your help. O God, we open our hearts to you. We want to be healed. Amen.

PRAYER CHURCH: Glen Alpine (P. O. Box 146, Glen Alpine, NC 28628) The Glen Alpine Presbyterian Church continues to reach out to the Glen Alpine community. In the past year, seven adult members have united with the church. We have one member that is approaching 103 years of age and another that is approaching 94. Following a severe storm in 2008, part of the roof needed to be replaced and one of the older trees fell and had to be removed. Some volunteers and professional pruners helped to remove it. We are grateful for the Lord’s blessings. Please remember our Senior Citizens and our pastor, Dr. Howard Doerle.
