Leader: "God has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins" (Colossians 1:13-14).

People: "Christ is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn of the dead, so that he might come to have first place in ever thing" (Colossians 1:18).

All: We worship and adore you, Christ our King.

Hymn 265 Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun

Prayer of Confession

God of wonder and might, forgive us when we put our faith in earthly power instead of in your promises. You call us to work for your reign in this world, "on earth as it is in heaven." Forgive us when we take those words as a platitude instead of a pledge. Forgive us, oh Lord. Move us and challenge us to be servants of peace and justice. Amen.

Affirmation of Faith (unison) excerpts from Confession of Belhar 1986

We believe in the triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who gathers, protects, and cares for the church through Word and Spirit. This, God has done since the beginning of the world and will do to the end. We believe that Christ's work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another. We believe that unity, is therefore, both a gift and an obligation for the Church of Jesus Christ. We believe that, through the working of God's Spirit, it is a binding force, yet simultaneously a reality which must be earnestly pursued and sought: one which the people of God must continually be built up to attain. We believe that the church must together come to know the height and the breadth and the depth of the love of Christ. We believe that together we are built up to the stature of Christ the new humanity. We believe that we must together know and bear one another's burdens, thereby fulfilling the law of Christ. We believe that we are called to admonish and comfort one another; to suffer with one another for the sake of righteousness; to pray together; and together serve God in this world.
